PEDASI, PANAMA

Playa Panamaes is a 740-acre parcel of land with two beaches on the Azuero Peninsula. It is near the Azuero resort community, which features million-dollar homes, and adjacent to a 1,000-acre retreat owned by Liechtenstein's Prince Maximilian, who is building a 20,000-square-foot home there. Playa Panamaes is owned by a New York hotelier, who had plans to build a resort on the site but is now focused on building a hotel in Panama City. The town of Pedasi has a new regional airport that is a 30-minute flight from the international airport in Panama City.

$12 million. Panama Advisory International Group.
